First Reading: Psalm 118

Reader#1: Give thanks to the Lord who is good, for God's love endures forever.

Reader #2: I called to the Lord in my distress; God answered and freed me. The Lord is at my side; I do not fear.

Reader #1: It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in mortals; it is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in rulers.

Reader #2: I was thrust down, thrust down and falling, but the Lord was my helper. The Lord is my strength and my song; and has been my savior. There are shouts of joy and victory in the tents of the just.

Reader #1: The Lord's right hand has triumphed; God's right hand raised me. I shall not die, I shall live and recount God's deeds.

47 In the Lord

El Senyor

The musical score is written for a piano accompaniment in 3/4 time, with a tempo marking of quarter note = 69. The key signature has one flat (Bb). The score consists of two systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The first system covers the first two lines of the text, and the second system covers the remaining two lines. Chord symbols are placed above the vocal line. The piece concludes with a 'fine' marking and a fermata over the final chord.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

Reader #1: If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God.

Reader #2: Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

Reader # 1: When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

4. CHRISTUS RESURREXIT
Jesus Christ Is Risen

The musical score is written for a voice and piano. It consists of two systems of music. The first system has a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line begins with a whole rest, followed by the lyrics: "Chri-stus re-sur-re-xit, Je-sus Christ is ris-en, Chri-stus re-sur-re-xit, Je-sus Christ is ris-en!". The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords in the right hand. The second system also has a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line begins with a whole rest, followed by the lyrics: "Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia!". The piano accompaniment continues with similar harmonic support.

Third Reading John 20:1-10

Reader #1: Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them,

Reader #2: “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.” Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first.

Reader #1: He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself.

Reader #2: Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

(Al - le - lu - ia)

D.S.

Sing Alleluia (2 times)

We worship you, Jesus our Savior; You conquered death by Your cross.

Sing Alleluia

You are the stone rejected by the builders; You have become the cornerstone; make all of us living stones in Your church.

Sing Alleluia

We pray to You for Christians: may they live in the joy of the resurrection, and may they be a visible sign of Your presence by their mutual love.

Sing Alleluia

We pray to You for the leaders of Your Church; as they celebrate Your resurrection with all Your servants, may they be strengthened for Your service.

Sing Alleluia

We pray to You for the leaders of the nations: may they exercise their office as servants of justice and peace.

Sing Alleluia

We pray to You for all who are suffering from illness, grief, old age and exile: may Your resurrection be a source of comfort and aid for them.

(Name those for whom you pray)

Sing Alleluia (2 times)

Clergy Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen

Silence (10 minutes)

You are invited to come to the prayer stations.

One in the front and one in the back

for praying for yourself or others whose need is placed on your heart.

Prayer

Jesus our joy, in Your presence we find forgiveness, that clear flowing waters. Thirsting for the realities of God, we recognize Your presence as the Risen Lord. And just as the almond tree begins to blossom in the light of springtime, You make even the deserts of the soul burst into flower

Additional Healing Prayer Available

At times when we pray for healing, by God's grace, we experience amazing results right away. We might experience pain disappearing or a burden lifted from our heart in a way that we feel we are forever transformed - or we might even see a physical transformation before our eyes. These are signs that proclaim Christ's good news: "The kingdom of God is at hand". Often, however, healing will take place over time, with continuing in-depth prayer. Successful healing ministries, and Jesus Himself, admonish us to continue to pray over time, calling upon the Holy Spirit to penetrate more fully and deeply for ongoing healing.

Hope+in+the+Desert Episcopal Church offers private prayer appointments for ongoing prayer needs, for healing of physical ailments, healing of memories, trauma, etc. A team of trained prayer partners will pray with you in one hour sessions.

Please call the Hope office at (505) 830-0572 to schedule in-depth prayer appointments with our Healing Ministry Prayer Teams

Or Give us your prayer request and we will contact you.
